"YOU ARE A SOURCE OF STRENGTH, A PLACE OF HAPPINESS, MY NATIVE UZBEKISTAN!"

Today our Motherland is independent Uzbekistan. 29 years have passed since Uzbekistan gained independence. For any citizen, this age is a kind of stage on the life path - he became an adult, chose a profession, makes plans for the future, sums up the past.

The independence of Uzbekistan is the greatest historical achievement of our people. It opened the way for the realization of the country's enormous potential, became the foundation for a great and prosperous Motherland, a free and prosperous life creation.

Today, the people well-being concept is the main essence and content of the national idea of the Motherland prosperity.

Today, no matter where you visit our country, you will witness the noble work carried out by our compatriots for the further improvement and prosperity of the Motherland. Today, the image of native Uzbekistan has changed and transformed beyond recognition. The Uzbek people, full of strength and energy, are making significant progress in all spheres of society.

In the conditions of independence, the main attention of our state is aimed at ensuring human rights and interests, raising the standard of living of the population, creating decent socio-economic conditions for the citizens of the country. The head of our state identified important tasks on the path of expanding the scale of creative work in the republic, strengthening peace and tranquility, interethnic harmony and cohesion in the country, further improving the health of the population, beautifying makhallas, raising the level and quality of life of the people.

The construction of new modern residential areas with advanced engineering, transport and social infrastructure is an important promising task aimed at the comprehensive welfare of the country.
